

FIDDLER ON THE ROOF COMING TO MORGAN HILL!

Congregation Emeth invites members of the Bay Area Jewish community to join us at a special performance of Fiddler on the Roof, presented by South Valley Civic Theatre on June 9, beginning at 2:30 PM. The production will take place at the Morgan Hill Community Playhouse, 17090 Monterey Road, in downtown Morgan Hill, close to Congregation Emeth's temple building. The Congregation is planning an afternoon of Jewish cultural experiences in conjunction with the performance, which will benefit Congregation Emeth's educational activities.

“Morgan Hill's community theater is well known for its high quality productions,” said Elizabeth Mandel, a temple board member who is coordinating the fundraiser. “When we heard they would be presenting Fiddler on the Roof we knew we wanted to participate, both promoting what is sure to be an outstanding performance and exposing Bay Area residents to this slice of Jewish history!”

Rabbi Debbie Israel, spiritual leader of Congregation Emeth, is serving as consultant to the production. “We hope the Jewish Community of the South Bay will attend in support of the temple and the community production,” she said. “We plan to use this opportunity to showcase the unique aspects of Jewish culture that are relevant to the production.”

For more information about the Congregation and this special event, email events@emeth.net or call 408-778-8200.

