Descriptions of Emeth Services

All evening services begin at 7:15 pm. All Erev Shabbat (evening) dinners begin at 6:15 pm.

Shabbat Short 'N Sweet: An informal short Erev Shabbat (Friday evening) service. Learn the meaning of the prayers and discuss the Torah portion of the week. Rabbi led, this service is especially appropriate for children of all ages as well as adults. It is part of the Religious School curriculum. Prayers for healing and Mourners Kaddish are included. It is preceded by a community dinner with Shabbat rituals.

Friday Night Live: This Erev Shabbat (Friday evening) service highlights Kabbalat Shabbat, the introductory prayers. This is a high energy, musical, abbreviated service appropriate for children of all ages as well as adults. It is part of the Religious School curriculum. Prayers for healing and Mourners Kaddish are included. It is preceded by a potluck dinner with Shabbat rituals.

TNT – Torah 'N T'filah: This service includes reading the weekly Torah portion and a sermon. It is a complete Shabbat service.

Erev Shabbat Services: Complete Friday evening services, without a Torah service.

Shabbat at Home: On certain weekends during the year, Congregation Emeth does not have community Shabbat services. Resources are available from the Congregation to facilitate a meaningful Shabbat dinner and Torah discussion in your home.

Shabbat Morning Service: A traditional Shabbat morning service with Torah and Haftarah readings, and Kiddush lunch to follow. Attire is synagogue traditional (business casual to semi-formal).

Congregation Emeth's Annual

Progressive Dinner

Saturday, August 17

The evening will begin at 5:00 at the home of one of our member families and “progress” to other members’ homes where we will be enjoying different courses and culinary delights!

We are looking for hosts – if you’re willing and able, contact Patty as soon as possible!

Upon reserving your space, you will be assigned to one of the hosts and asked to contribute to that particular course.

This is always a very popular adult-oriented event,
and space is limited,
so make your reservation today! (Adult members only)

RSVP to Patty Baggese
